International House Helsinki

International House Helsinki provides a wide range of information and public authority services to meet the needs of international newcomers in the Helsinki capital region.

International House Helsinki

IHH is the main entry point for international newcomers to start their life in the Helsinki capital region, and the next step after applying for a residence permit. International newcomers can visit multiple authority services (including Migri, DVV, Vero, Kela, the TE office, and more) under one roof at IHH's service centre for a streamlined integration experience.

International House Helsinki

- At International House Helsinki (IHH), the cities of Helsinki, Espoo, and Vantaa provide general information and guidance across many topics.
- Whether you have questions about city services, need help understanding the procedures of different authority services, or more, use our general information and guidance for help.
- All services at IHH are free of charge.

Newcomer's Guide

Latest edition of Newcomer's Guide

- It includes guidance on e.g.
 - Bank account
 - Mobile phone subscription
 - Early childhood education (daycare)
 - Renting an apartment
 - Health services and medical care
 - Public transportation
 - Free-time activities
